Public Exhibition: Children and Young People's Participation Service (ChYpPS)

Children and Young People's Participation Service (ChYpPS) held an Agenda Day during February 2016 to gather the views of children and young people on their local area. A ChYpPS representative will be present to feedback on what they had to say.

Members of the Committee and the public are invited to view the exhibition before the start of the meeting and during any breaks.

Public Exhibition: Community Provision Review Drop-in Sessions

A display map of community facilities across the city will be available.

Please look at the map and information provided then let us know:

1. Have we missed any community facilities?
2. Are there any needs/gaps in the current provision of community facilities?
3. Is there any excess in the current provision of community facilities?
4. Would they like to be kept informed of, or participate further in, the review of the Council's community facilities?
