Following the announcement by Councillor Lewis Herbert to Council on 21 October 2021 that he will resign as Leader of the Council, which is to be effective from 30 November 2021, the Members of Council are required to appoint a new Leader of the Council.

Article 7.3 of the Constitution states:

Council in the year their term of office ends or until:

2. resignation from the office; or
3. removal from office by resolution of the Council.

At the meeting, the Mayor will call for nominations and a vote will be taken.

2 Changes to the appointments to the Combined Authority-as appropriate

The Council is required to appoint its representative and substitute representative. The outcome of the previous agenda item may require a change(s) to Combined Authority nominees. Nominations will be sought as appropriate.
