| Power              | New/existing                | Purpose  | Applicants                           | Test   | Penalty on breach                                 | Appeal  |
|--------------------|-----------------------------|--|--------------------------------------|--|---|---|
|                    | power                       |  |                                      |  |   |   |
| Closure Power      | Existing power but modified | To allow the Police or Council to quickly close premises which are being used, or likely to be used, to commit nuisance or disorder. | Police, Council                      | Satisfied that the use of particular premises has resulted or is likely soon to result in nuisance to members of the public or that there has been or is likely soon to be disorder near those premises associated with the use of those premises, and that the notice is necessary to precent the nuisance or disorder from continuing, recurring or occurring. | Criminal offence -unlimited fine orprison | Appeal to the CrownCourt                  |
| Community          | • .                         | To stop a person, business or organisation   | Police, Council,                     | The conduct of the individual, business or organisation is having a  | Criminal offence -                                | Appeal to the                                 |
| Protection Notice  | modified                    | committing anti-social behaviour which spoils the community's quality of life.   | Desingated Social landlords          | detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the lcoality, is persistent or continuing in nature and is unreasonable.   | fine  | Magistrates Court                             |
| Criminal Behaviour | Existing power but          | To deal with a wide range of anti-social   | CPS                                  | Offender has engaged in behaviour that caused, or was likely to cause,   | Criminal offence -                                | Appeal to the Crown                           |
| Order              | modified                    | behaviours with the aim to tackle the most serious and persistent offenders and available on conviction for any criminal offence.    |                                      | harassment, alarm or distress to one or more persons and that making the order will help in preventing the offender from engaging in such behaviour.   | fine and or prison                                | Court   |
| Civil Injunction   | Existing power but          | To stop or prevent individuals engaging in anti-   | Police, Council, Housing             | Evidence to the civil standard of proof that the respondent has engaged  | Contempt of Court -                               | Appeal to Crown                               |
|                    | modified                    | social behaviour quickly before they escalate.   | Provider, NHS,Environment Agency | in, or is threatening to engage in, conduct capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to another person.  | fine or prison                                    | Court   |
| Police Dispersal   | Existing power but          | Requires a person committing or likely to  | Police                               | Reaonable grounds to suspect that the behaviour of the person has  | Criminal offence -                                | Appeal to Police                              |
| Power              | modified                    | commit anti-social behaviour, crime or   |                                      | contributed or is likely to contribute to members of the public in the   | fine and or prison                                |   |
|                    |                             | disorder to leave an area for up to 48 hours.  |                                      | Icoality being harassed, alarmed or distressed or to crime and disorder ocurring in the locality. Giving a direction to the person is necesary for the   |   |   |
|                    |                             |  |                                      | purpose of removing or reducing the likelihood of anti-social behaviour,   |   |   |
|                    |                             |  |                                      | crime or disorder.   |   |   |
| Public Spaces      | • .                         | To stop individuals or groups committing anti-   | Council after                        | The activities carried out have had, or are likely to have a detrimental   | Criminal offence -                                | Appeal to High Court                          |
| Protection Order   | modified                    | social behaviour in a public space.  | consultation with Police and Crime   | effect on the quality of life of those in the locality, is likely to be persistent   | fine  | by anyone who lives in                        |
|                    |                             |  | Commissioner and                     | or continuing in nature, is unreasonable and justifies the restrictions imposed.   |   | or regularly works or visits the area subject |
|                    |                             |  | Police                               |  |   | to PSPO.                                      |
|                    |                             |  |                                      |  |   |   |