

Community Trigger

The Community Trigger gives victims and communities the right to request a review of their case and bring agencies together to take a joined up, problem solving approach to find a solution.

An application under the community trigger procedure can be made when three qualifying complaints of anti-social behaviour (ASB) have been made within a six months period, and the victim feels that the relevant agencies have made no or inadequate response . This is called the threshold.

A qualifying complaint is one where:

- ☐ The complaint of ASB has been reported within one month of it taking place; and
- ☐ The application is made within six months of the original report of ASB.
