Suggested conditions that could assist the licensing authority in determining this application, or other suggestions you would like the licensing authority to take into account

SEE COMMENTS OVER.

The term 'vicinity' is used in the Licensing Act 2003, in particular with reference to those 'interested parties' (see definition in guidance attached) who may lodge objections to applications for premises licences and who may make representations concerning existing premises licences. The Act does not define the term 'vicinity' but its ordinary meaning is 'near to'.

If the licensing authority considers that relevant representations are made the licensing section may consider arranging a mediation meeting between the relevant parties (if all agree) to try and reach a settlement. If this informal process is unsuccessful a hearing before the Licensing [Sub-] Committee will follow, unless the interested parties withdraw their representations.

All representations in their entirety, including your name and address will be disclosed to the applicant for the premises licence and the members of the [Sub-] Committee, so that they can make an informed decision on the application.

I do/ ~~do not~~ object to my name and address being made public in the report to the [Sub-] Committee.

Dear Sirs,

Until the van arrived on site one evening to begin grading we were unaware what was happening and were surprised that there had been no prior contact by the Council with nearby residents.

Comments

1. It is likely that undesirable football will increase after dark and this can be noisy and disruptive.
Food remnants are pushed into and under front garden hedges at present.
2. When cycle lanes have been installed there will be no stopping allowed in Arbury Road and could result in visitors to Arbury Road residents blocking Nicholson Way.

3. When brightly lit up the van is an attraction for children who will be at risk from traffic and also passing drivers at night will be distracted.
  4. There is no need for another van, as vans are located at the shop bus and Kingsway Hubs plus a bar food shop in Arkbury Court just over the road.
  5. In summer residents are unable to open windows due to unpleasant cooking smells.
  6. House values could well be affected.
4. I hope that my remarks above will be of assistance in helping the Committee to refuse this application.
