

To Whom It May Concern,

[REDACTED] If I can hear their music from here then what is it going to be like when Charlie's Coffee Company host regular movie screenings and live music and have extended opening hours. I understand that the proprietors have considered their neighbours but I feel that this will not be enough. Currently, Charlie's have been hosting music nights on a regular basis. These are OK but still not the best as I can still hear music when my windows are shut. My other concern is the possibility of them having draught beer and spirits. When exactly does a café become a pub!

Please consider this when finalising your decision.

Thanks

[REDACTED]

The prevention of crime and disorder When is a person determined to be "drunk" . Allowing Extended opening hours and service of draught beers spirits will only add to this problem.	Public safety
The prevention of public nuisance There are already a number of licenced premises selling draught beers and liquors which leads to noise nuisance and disorderly behaviour.	The protection of children from harm

Suggested conditions that could assist the licensing authority in determining this application, or other suggestions you would like the licensing authority to take into account

Loud music and amplified voice/live music will be disturbing, unless highly efficient sound insulation is provided

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and feel that I will suffer sleep deprivation . I have lived at this address for [REDACTED] and have had to already complain to council about various noise issues from licenced and unlicenced premises.

The term 'vicinity' is used in the Licensing Act 2003, in particular with reference to those 'interested parties' (see definition in guidance attached) who may lodge objections to applications for premises licences and who may make representations concerning existing premises licences. The Act does not define the term 'vicinity' but its ordinary meaning is 'near to'.

If the licensing authority considers that relevant representations are made the licensing section may consider arranging a mediation meeting between the relevant parties (if all agree) to try and reach a settlement. If this informal process is unsuccessful a hearing before the Licensing [Sub-] Committee will follow, unless the interested parties withdraw their representations.

All representations in their entirety, including your name and address will be disclosed to the applicant for the premises licence and the members of the [Sub-] Committee, so that they can make an informed decision on the application.

I do/ ~~do not~~* object to my name and address being made public in the report to the [Sub-] Committee.
