17/18CIVd Constitutional Amendments

Committee agreed that the changes to Council Procedure Rules introduced in April 2016 had worked well and noted that there had been no feedback from Group Leaders to the contrary.

On the proposals in the officer report (paragraphs 4.6-4.9)

Length of speeches: the Committee agreed to be consistent with speaking times for Motion debates ie 3 minutes per councillor. However, Committee agreed that Ex Cllr/Chair and spokes should be permitted up to 5 minutes.

Extraordinary meetings: the Committee agreed that public questions at Extraordinary Meetings of Council should only relate to that item, but did not agree that they should be submitted by 10am the day before. It should be consistent with other meetings ie. you can ask a question if it is an item on the agenda without prior notice.

County Councillors on Area Committees: the Committee agreed the proposal in the report with the clarification that only a city councillor can be a Chair or Vice Chair.

Appointment to outside bodies: the Committee agreed with the proposal. It was clarified that the arrangement would only apply for appointments 'within Group'.

The Committee noted a further proposal concerning the ability for Groups with more than one seat on a Scrutiny Committee to appoint 2 Alternate Members. The Committee noted that the Group Leader of the Liberal Democrat Group had been notified of this proposal but not in time for nominations to reflect this. Updates will be included in the Information Pack published the day before the Annual Meeting.
