

INFORMATION PACK

FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF

INDEPENDENT PERSON

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Following the resignation of Cambridge City Council's Independent Person, Cambridge City Council is seeking to appoint a new Independent Person to assist in maintaining and promoting its high ethical standards. This role was created by the Localism Act 2011 which requires all local authorities to adopt a code of conduct for their elected members; and to appoint at least one independent person to assist the Council in dealing with complaints that the code of conduct may have been breached.

The City Council has an Deputy Independent Person who can act as Independent Person in the event that the person appointed is incapacitated or otherwise unable to act; for instance, by reason of a conflict of interest.

A fixed allowance of £1000 is payable together with reimbursement of travel and subsistence expenses.

Full details of the role and responsibilities of the Independent Person are included in this Information Pack.

The Council intends to confirm the appointment of the Independent Person at the Council meeting on 22 February 2018 following the consideration and recommendation of the civic affairs committee which will meet on 14 February 2018.

ADVERT

INDEPENDENT PERSON

Closing Date: 12 January 2018

If you have a keen interest in promoting high ethical standards in local government, you may be interested in the opportunity join us as an Independent Person to assist our organisation in maintaining and promoting its own ethical standards.

The Localism Act 2011 saw the introduction of a code of conduct for elected members and your fair and impartial judgment as Independent Person would be sought and taken into account if the Council has received an allegation that the code of conduct has been breached. You will be encouraged to develop and apply knowledge of the codes of conduct and provide a view on the conduct of Cambridge City councillors from an external perspective, which reflects the expectations and views of the local community.

The Civic Affairs Committee meets approximately 4 times a year to deal with complaints, support the achievement of our high ethical standards and to provide scrutiny to the Council's annual complaints report; which shows the key themes of complaints and the actions being taken to learn and incorporate lessons. As our Independent person, the Committee will invite you to attend such meetings and would require your attendance at any meeting of the Committee which is considering an allegation of a breach of the code of conduct.

As part of the position, you will be encouraged to acquire some understanding of the work of the City Council and how it operates. Our democratic processes and culture reflect a city and a populace that values open public debate and your understanding of the accountability and objectivity demanded of us will help you to apply your logical reasoning, open-mindedness and impartiality. You should be prepared to undertake training and participate in training events organised by the Council to promote awareness of the Code of Conduct as required.

A fixed allowance of £1000 is payable together with reimbursement of travel and subsistence expenses.

ROLE DESCRIPTION

Responsible to: The Council

Monitoring Officer; Democratic Services Manager; members of the Civic Affairs Committee and other

Liaison with: Committees if and when necessary; Officers and members of the City Council and key stakeholders within the community.

1. If the Council has decided to investigate an allegation that the code of conduct has been breached then the views of the independent person must be sought, and taken into account, before the Council makes its decision on any such allegation. The Council may also seek the views of the independent person in relation to allegations where no decision to investigate has been made. In addition any Councillor, who has been complained about may seek the views of the independent person(s).
2. It is anticipated that the views of the independent person(s) will usually be sought by the Monitoring Officer by e-mail but, on occasions, contact may be by telephone or in face to face meetings. It is also anticipated that local procedures will be adopted requiring the independent person to be consulted on any allegation received not just those which have been investigated.
3. An independent person is likely to be invited to attend any meeting of the Civic Affairs Committee which is considering an allegation of a breach of the code of conduct. As well as dealing with complaints the Committee meets approximately four times each year to undertake its general role of supporting the achievement of high ethical standards. The Committee will invite the independent person(s) to attend those meetings.
4. The Independent Person will be encouraged to develop and apply knowledge of the codes of conduct, and to analyse and to exercise fair and impartial judgment on conduct issues, and to set high standards of ethical behaviour, and develop a sound understanding of the ethical framework.
5. The Independent Person will be expected to provide a view on the conduct of Cambridge City councillors from an external perspective, reflecting the expectations and views of the local community on ethical standards.
6. The Independent Person will be encouraged to acquire some understanding of the work of the City Council and how it operates, and must be prepared to undertake training and also to participate in training events organised by the Council to promote awareness of the Code of Conduct.

7. Support will be provided by the Council's Monitoring Officer and/ or Democratic Services Manager who will arrange any necessary training and provide such information and assistance as is necessary to enable the Independent Person to perform the role effectively.

8. The Independent Person will not be an employee of the Council. The term of office will be for a fixed term as notified to the Independent Person on appointment and will be subject to the Independent Person maintaining high standards of personal conduct. The City Council may terminate an appointment at any time.

ESSENTIAL QUALITIES

1. To demonstrate a keen interest in promoting high ethical standards in local government, and to have a general understanding of the principles behind the members' Code of Conduct.
