

CAMBRIDGE CITY COUNCIL

Officer Urgent Decision - Record

Discretionary Self-Isolation Payments

Decision(s) taken:	To approve the framework for Discretionary Self-Isolation Payments.
Decision of:	Strategic Director 2 (Suzanne Hemingway)
Date of decision:	9 October 2020
Matter for Decision:	To establish criteria for entitlement to Discretionary Self-Isolation Payments (above prescribed requirements) to enable awards to be made from 12 October 2020.
Any alternative options considered and rejected:	Other options rejected are included in the briefing paper.
Reason(s) for the decision including any background papers considered:	An urgent decision under paragraph 2 of section 9, Council Procedure Rules was necessary because of time limitations. It is mandated that Councils must have a process in place by 12 October 2020. Link to background paper: https://democracy.cambridge.gov.uk/ecSDDisplay.aspx?NAME=SD1549&ID=1549&RPID=67109627
Conflicts of interest and dispensations granted by the Chief Executive:	None.
Other Comments:	The Chief Executive and Executive Councillor for Finance and Resources were consulted prior to the decision being taken There are no budgetary implications as Cambridge City Council has been given 100% funding to administer and pay these awards.
