

Agenda Item 7: Cost of Living Council response – Binnie Pickard

Binnie Pickard, Community Development Officer, Cambridge City Council will discuss the Council's response to the recent cost of living crisis. Support is available across different council services and is currently coordinated by the Community Development team. Support available includes grants for community groups, pop-up advice events in community venues, and welcoming and warm spaces in community venues.